POSITION - COLLEGE STUDENT COORDINATOR

College students are a vital part of our community. The majority of the students who attend SOMA are enrolled at Geneva College, a four-year college founded by the Reformed Presbyterian Church. SOMA is also home to students from other nearby colleges and universities. The college student coordinator will be an important part of enfolding all interested students into the ministry of SOMA community.

Responsibilities:

1. Develop a relational ministry with college students who attend SOMA
2. Create and encourage opportunities for intergenerational fellowship and relationship building within the life of the body
3. Grow discipleship through relational ministry
4. Support students in their student life
5. Engage in college student life on Geneva's campus in some capacity, for example a weekly meal in the dining hall
6. Manage a small budget for the college student ministry ($500)
7. Meet with campus ministers from representative student populations once a semester
8. Meet regularly with Pastor Caleb
9. Attend a Mission Partner class when offered (if not already a Mission Partner at SOMA)

Qualifications:

1. Evident commitment to know and follow Jesus Christ
2. Must support SOMA's mission and values
3. SOMA mission partner or in good standing with a church community
4. Understand the challenges and needs of college students
5. Genuine desire to encourage college students in their walk with Jesus Christ
6. Maintain confidentiality in a mature way
7. Self-starter who enjoys working with college students and is approachable
8. Strong relational skills

Hours:

7-10 hours per week

Compensation:

$5,000 (August through May, $500 stipend per month)
